

An abstract painting with vibrant colors like red, blue, yellow, and green. It depicts two figures, possibly Indigenous, standing in a landscape. The figures are rendered with bold, expressive brushstrokes. The background features a mix of colors suggesting a sky and ground.

re:VISION Indigenous Employment Program

WHO QUALIFIES?

- Indigenous Youth aged 18-29
- Not currently involved with school or current employment.

WHATS IN IT FOR YOU?

- A supportive mentor to help you find employment that meets your unique needs.
- Opportunities to meet with employers who are interested in better supporting the Indigenous community.
- Support in accessing work appropriate clothing and equipment.
- Support in developing a strong resume.
- Interview preparation and practice.
- Ongoing support from pre-employment to post-employment.

For additional information, please contact:

Tyra Vedan at 403-614-0772
tvedan@miskanawah.ca

This program is funded by the Collaborative Funders' Table

miskanawah
empowerment • strength • family